HAIR EXTENSIONS TRAINING

We do this at TLC Hair Designer, and anyone is welcome – even if you have not worked in the industry before. We do training in 3 Methods including Micro ring hair extensions.

ABOUT US

The TLC Hair Designer is a fast-track training Academy. Our courses lead to a verified standard that you can rely on.

Our sole focus is to provide fast-track expert training to help you improve your business results.

Our CPD certified courses are short intensive courses allowing students to gain an industry-recognized certificate, leading to a verified standard that you can rely on with external independent accreditation.

Our relationship with our students does not finish at the end of a course, we provide ongoing support by phone and email to help students maximise their investment in their performance. We look forward to helping you meet the needs of your business no matter how large or small.

Ever EVOLVING...

Our new and improved programme allows your training day/s to be 100% practical allowing more time to perfect fitting techniques, placement and most importantly cutting and finishing.
